A Message from Pastor Cho:

My beloved Fairfield Grace family and friends,

The 2016 confirmation journey is on. I am blessed and honored to take a confirmation journey with our precious youth-- Ellie C, Cassie S, Addison R and David R. Since early last month, I have been enjoying the time of worshiping, praying, and learning with them on Sunday afternoons. At the last meeting, I gave them an assignment to search for where God is and what God does in this world and take pictures if they find God. I look forward to their pictures this coming Sunday afternoon. Have you seen God lately? Have you heard God speaking to you? I would love to hear from you, as well. Please email me pictures at kunsam-cho92@gmail.com. I can receive them via texting at 914-319-4241.

This year is our church's 60th anniversary year. Yes, God was there when our church began in 1956. Yes, God has been active and touching many people last 60 years. Yes, God continues to work in our midst. According to the lunar calendar, every 60th year a new life cycle begins so we are entering a new life cycle this year. I am ready to welcome a new life of Fairfield Grace. I am ready to see a new turning point in our church mission and ministry. Are you? Join me to see what God is doing anew and celebrate it with me. Sunday, June 19, is the day we plan to have a special thanksgiving service with Rev. Ken Kieffer, CT District Superintendent. Mark it on your calendar now.

Believe it or not, a new beginning is already happening at Fairfield Grace. You might have already heard that the spaghetti dinner will be "resurrected" in March this year. It is true that the spaghetti dinner is coming back. March 12 is the day we resume the community dinner, missed greatly by many including myself. I look forward to enjoying the time with many regular diners and new visitors. Special thanks goes to Todd Daigle, one of our young adults, whose energetic willingness and passionate love for the church has empowered us for this mission of the church. I have no doubt we will have a lively and good time every second Saturday together as a church family and with our neighbors and their friends who have been missing it very much. Do come and enjoy fellowship and friendship in Christ once a month. Do all you can do to make the monthly dinner a time and a place for many to find joy and celebrate life together.

Lenten season is around the corner. Time flies, indeed. I still remember vividly the Christmas Eve candlelight services in the beautifully adorned sanctuary. But look, we are about to enter the new season leading us to the cross. It is the time to follow Jesus and his journey to the cross. It is an opportunity to examine closely our relationship with Jesus, our God and our Lord. We remember the question the risen Jesus asked Peter three times: "Do you love me?" Do you love Jesus? Do I love Jesus? Am I really his disciple to follow him all the way, even to the cross? Do I do all I can do to take part in the mission and ministry of the church in this world? Am I really his faithful follower? I would like to keep asking these questions with you throughout this season, expecting the power of the Holy Spirit to awaken and empower us anew. The Lenten journey begins with the Ash Wednesday Taizé Prayer Service on Feb. 10 at 7 pm, which our confirmation candidates plan to attend.

See you soon in church.

A Sincere and Heartfelt THANK YOU

A heartfelt and sincere thank you from the staff to all church members for the very generous Christmas gift. We are grateful for your kindness and thoughtfulness during this Christmas season as well as throughout the year. Your support makes us thankful to be a part of the team.

“Worship the Lord with gladness.
Come before him, singing with joy.”
(Psalm 100:2 NLT, second edition)

To strengthen your faith, you must unite with others in worship. Worship is for God, but it also has benefits for you. Here are two of the biggest benefits of corporate worship: It renews your faith, and it restores your joy.

Isaiah 40:31 says, “Those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint” (NIV).

How many times have you gotten up on a Sunday morning and said, “I am so tired. I really don’t have any energy to go to church,” but then you went to church and worshipped and afterward you were more energized? That happens because worship renews you. It strengthens you. It strengthens your faith.

You’re not going to get your strength renewed by watching golf on tv. That’s just going to make you lazier and lazier. You get renewed by worshipping God with other believers.

As a pastor, sometimes I think of myself like the coach in the boxing movie “Rocky.” Rocky is out there in the fight, and he’s pouring his heart out and just getting beat to a pulp. The bell rings and he goes, “Thank God.” He comes to the corner, and the coach says, “You’re doing a good job.” The coach throws some water on him, pats him on the back, and says, “Now get back out there.”

Sometimes I feel like that’s what I’m doing on Sunday for my church. I’m telling them, “You’re doing a good job. Now get back out there. You can do this!” But that’s not me renewing people’s strength. It’s the Word of God. It’s music and praying and worshipping together with other believers.

The Bible also says in Psalm 100:2, “Worship the Lord with gladness. Come before him, singing with joy” (NLT, second edition).

I think it ought to be fun to go to church. That may seem strange to you because it’s not how you were raised or how you felt about a certain church you’ve attended. But the Bible says to worship the Lord with gladness — not boredom, sadness, anger, or out of duty. You should be singing for joy in church! Church should have that effect on you. Worship should renew your faith and restore your joy.

*“I was glad when they said to me, ‘Let us go to the house of the Lord’”
(Psalm 122:1).*

In addition, any closures will be posted on Channel 12 News, News 8 and NBC Connecticut.

Paper Shredding Day

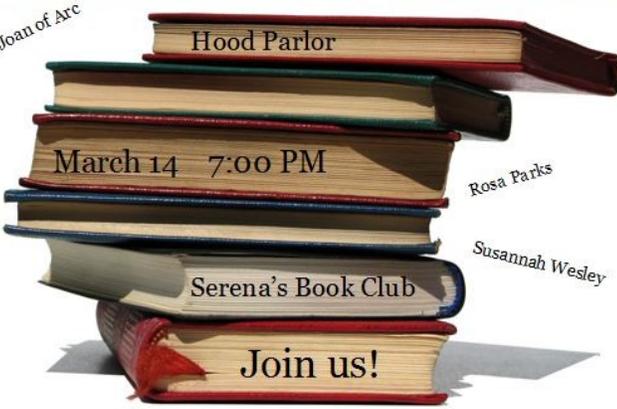

Saturday, May 14, 2016

Do you ever want to clean out your files of old bank statements, checks, brokerage statements, income tax forms, etc.? There are a lot of papers that you should put through a shredder so no one will use the information for identity theft. You may even have a small office shredder at home. But there are times when you have so much to shred that it would take you hours with a small shredder. So the job just does not get done.

We have the answer. Just toss all that shredding material into a carton and bring it to church on Saturday morning May 14. For a mere $10, we will take a 10-ream size carton of paper (price can vary--more for larger cartons and less for small ones) and have it shred for you. This shredding opportunity will take place in our church parking lot, and we will advertise it and make it available to the whole town. So it is something you can ask your friends to do also.

Please note that if we can get more than 50 people to bring boxes of paper, we will make some money to help the church. So talk it up with your friends, doctors, businesses, etc.

"Seven Women and the Secret of their Greatness" by Eric Metaxis has been selected by the Serena group. Each chapter of this book is a biographical sketch of a different woman. We will begin with Chapter Two, focusing on Susanna Wesley, the mother of the founder of Methodism, John Wesley. We will have a special guest to discuss Chapter One, on Joan of Arc, at a later date. Our focus will be on the insights and inspiration we discover about each woman's life. Women highlighted in other chapters, including Corrie Ten Boom and Rosa Parks, give us a varied timeline in history. You will only be asked to read one chapter before each monthly meeting.

The books can be ordered online from Amazon.com or CBD.com for under $14.00. The book is also available as an e-book. If you do not have a computer, please contact Anne in the church office at 203-374-6528 or fairfieldgrace@sbcglobal.net

JEREMIAH 29:7

Dear Rev. Kun Sam Cho,

The recent pledge and payment of $250 to The Council translates directly into the vital work of helping inner-city school children with their homework, providing counseling and temporary respite care to youth in crisis, guiding former offenders to a second chance, and supporting a network of over 39 feeding programs, who together, served over 2.5 million meals last year to hungry people ~ leveraging hope and changing lives! Please convey our gratitude to the members of your congregation.

As we are blessed with gifts, we celebrate the opportunity to bless the lives of others. With deep appreciation for your partnership in our shared mission, and my hope that you have had a blessed Christmas, and will have a happy New Year,
