A Message from Pastor Cho:

To my dearest FGUMC family members and friends,

Please welcome me back to Fairfield, CT. At the 220th New York Annual Conference Session at Hofstra University in Long Island, New York, Bishop Thomas Bickerton, Resident Episcopal Leader of the New York Annual Conference, has appointed me to the town of Fairfield, CT. You heard it right. I have been appointed to serve not only Fairfield Grace church family and friends but also all the people in Fairfield. I have been sent to do the mission and ministry of the church with YOU for the people in Fairfield and beyond. I do know I cannot carry out this awesome call without YOU. So once again I thank the Lord for YOU and thank YOU, all of YOU, for your “being” and “doing” at Fairfield Grace. A special thanks for your prayers for me and my pastoral ministry at Fairfield. Let us keep praying that we, together as partners in ministry, continue to discern and participate actively in what God is doing in our midst for the people in Fairfield.

Going to Panera Bread on Black Rock Turnpike every Tuesday morning has been the most exciting and enjoyable weekly activity of mine. Being out there for two hours gives me the chance to meet people and pray with them. Yes, sometimes I am there alone with nobody. When no one sits with me at my table, I enjoy watching people coming in and going out and praying for them. What a joy it is. Last Tuesday, when I entered Panera Bread, I thought I entered our Fellowship Hall. It was not a strange place any longer: Craig, a salesperson working on his laptop there behind me; Georgi Anne, Paola, Mandy, Thalia, Key, Breana serving as cashiers and Nora as a table cleaner; Debbie, Judy, Donna, Carol, Rose Anne, Mary Anne, and Beverly, knitting together at a long table. They and I were there to greet one another with a big smile. I was awakened to know that we are not strangers to one another but neighbors to care and love. Last Tuesday, Debbie, one of the knitters, came to me with a prayer concern and asked me to keep Kate, a friend of her friend's niece in Florida, in my prayers. I felt humbled and thankful by her asking. Kate has been added in our prayer afterwards. I remember it was a big “out of the box” step for me when I began spending time weekly at Panera. Now it has been almost three years, and being there is no longer an “out of the box” thing. It has become a weekly ordinary routine I feel comfortable with.

As I enter the 12th year of my ministry at Fairfield Grace, I would like to begin several “out of the box” ministries. It is regarding preaching ministries on Sundays. The first “out of the box” preaching ministry begins this summer: “You Asked for It” series. This is how it works. Every Sunday in July and August, I will ask the congregation to write down a question and put it in the “sermon” offering plate as they enter the Sanctuary. I will pick out the ones I want to answer during the “Peace” time and then during the message time I will read and answer them. Wow. Wow. It is really “out of the box” and radically risky to me, a preacher to whom English is his second language. I am already scared and I will be more scared as Sunday approaches. But I am ready to “jump off the cliff,” trusting that the Lord will catch me safe and sound. So, two things I am asking from you. First, pray for me and the congregation for this new and risky journey. Two, bring your questions with you and see how the Lord answers them via Kun Sam, your preacher. Please remember that you need to bring your question back to the plate on Sundays until it is answered. The 7th of July is the D-day for Fairfield Grace Church and preacher Kun Sam.

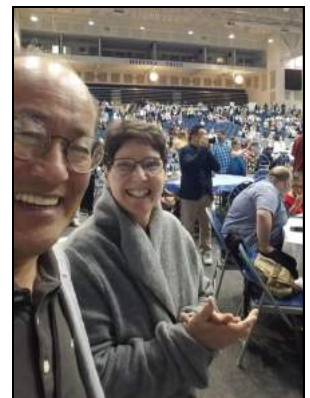

Talking about preaching in the summer, let me let you know who are scheduled to preach while I am on vacation. For the 10:00 am service: Paul Meyer on July 28, Rev. Jong Sung Kim on August 4, Franklyn MacLean on August 11 and Sheila Muscott on August 18. Rev. Kim is a retired United Methodist pastor, who served in Seymour . For the 1:00 pm service: Rev. Paul S Yoon on July 28, Rev. Jong Sung Kim on August 4, Rev. Dong Hyun Choi on August 11 and Rev. Song Ha Park on Aug 18.

I plan to visit my mom in Torrance, CA, to celebrate her 96th birthday with my two sisters and two brothers and their children. On the way back to CT, I will stop by to visit Pastor J. and Fredene in Indiana. I look forward to these two visits, which will remain in my memory for a long time. Before I return to Fairfield, CT, on August 20, I will spend a week or so in Riverhead in Long Island, New York, near Shelter Island. While I am away, Rev. Jong Sung Kim at 203-722-6858 & jskim169@gmail.com from July 15 to August 4 and Rev. Jim Stinson at 203-984-0141 & jstinson4242@aol.com from August 5 and August 18 will be on call to respond to any pastoral cares you need.

I hope all of you have a chance to take time out or vacation and get rest and refreshed and re-created. Yes, we remember the Lord took rest after creative works in this universe. We all need to be replenished to keep doing lively and energetically what we, the Body of Christ, are called to do.

Peace in Christ Jesus,

Kun Sam, your great small church pastor

Patio Worship Services:

With the arrival of summer comes Fairfield-Grace's outdoor worship service, held every Sunday morning from 8:30-9:00 a.m. on the church patio during July and August. These services offer an informal and joyous worship experience and are a wonderful way to worship God and enjoy His creation. Services continue through August 25.

Calling all 20, 30 and 40 year olds!

Fairfield Grace wants to hear from you.
We want to speak with you and learn from you.

We believe we can better serve the members of our congregation and people in our community in your age bracket.

What is the Lord saying to you about the church? What do you think needs changing? What can be done to reach others in this age who may need help or guidance?

PEOPLE NEED THE LORD

We are aware this group may have pressures with financial struggles, relationships, raising a family, loneliness or despair. We want to help them find hope and answers through Christian faith either here at Fairfield Grace or wherever the Lord may send them.

We invite the young men and women, new parents, singles, people in relationships to talk with us.

Over the next two months please call the church and set up a mutually convenient time to talk with Pastor Cho, myself or others. The talks can be brief, informal and take place at church, nearby eating places or other agreeable locations.

All opinions are welcome. In the fall we would like to have a few more structured meetings to implement approved plans or changes.

Thank you for your consideration and cooperation. You are the future Christian leaders of Fairfield Grace or where the Lord places you.

In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

New Parish Nurse Program at Fairfield Grace

As announced during a recent Sunday Service, we are in the process of creating a Parish Nurse Program. The main goal of this program is to work in collaboration with the church leaders to provide health promotion and prevention services to the whole church community.

As your Parish nurse, I am prepared to play a variety of roles including educator, counselor and advocate for individuals and families within our church.

I would like to start the program by offering blood pressure screenings available for the whole congregation every first Sunday of the month after service. Please feel free to contact me with any questions or concerns you may have.

AIEP is Seeking Host Families

My name is Donna Douglass. I am with an organization called AIEP that recruits international high school students from China and provides their homestays. We are seeking host families that can host students attending Fairfield Prep High School in Fairfield. They will be arriving in mid-August. We find that some of the best host families come from the church's internal community.

For every family that is accepted into our program and is matched with a student, we will provide your church a $500 referral bonus in September.

Can you kindly review and consider? If you have any further questions, you can reach out to the Local Coordinator in your area, Sandra Gizzi at sgizzi@aiepusa.com. Any support is greatly appreciated.
