A Message from Pastor Cho:

To My Dearest FGUMC family members and friends,

“There is no place like home.” Once again I, like a prodigal son, discovered how true this statement is after spending many days and nights away from home during my summer vacation. Home where a comfy bed, delicious home-made meals and, above all, the warm and caring spirit of the family are found is where a true rest can be found, indeed.

Let me tell you another discovery I made last month. That is, there is no church family like Fairfield Grace UMC in the world. During my times away from Fairfield Grace, I had opportunities to visit and worship on Sundays at several faith communities, including Torrance UMC in CA, Pound Ridge UMC, Zion Hill UMC and Society of Friends (Quakers) in CT. Straightforwardly speaking, they seemed not happy to see me worshipping with them. After a brief, lukewarm greeting at the door before worshipping, they did not seem to care about new faces in their midst. Even pastors did not recognize and welcome visitors during the announcement time. Believe it or not, no one approached after the worship services and invited me to come back, saying, “See you next Sunday!” How sad and disappointed I was! But, ironically, I was thankful that our Fairfield Grace family is a proactively welcoming and warm congregation, open to all the people in whom the image and likeness of God is engraved.

September signals the beginning of a new season. As summer winds down, children and youth are ready to return to school, and so do people to work. Likewise, our church life is about to return to its regular cycle. Our choirs return and so does our Church School. I want you to return as well. 1) Return to worship. Let us not forget to take the Sabbath to rest and give thanks for all the blessings from God. The Psalmist sings, “O come, let us sing to the Lord; let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation! Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving; let us make a joyful noise to him with songs of praise! "(Psalm 95:1-2) Yes, worshipping is celebrating all the things God has done and is doing in our midst. Therefore, it is a joyful "party" time, full of thanksgiving. Come and celebrate together every Sunday morning. 2) Return to grow in faith. We never stop growing and changing. Only the dead never grow and change. The small group discussion schedule for the year 2019-2020 has been set to run. Come with an open and willing mind to be challenged and awakened, and you will experience the joy of growing in faith. 3) Return to share your Christian love and friendship with your Fairfield Grace sisters and brothers. Mutual encouragement is necessary for our faith journey, so come with confidence and intercessory prayers. "We believe the communion of saints" – Apostle's Creed. Continue to keep weekly with me three FGUMC families/individuals in prayers. "By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love one another." (John 13:35) And 4) Return to do good. We are here to proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ, not only in words but also in actions. "So faith by itself, if I has no works, is dead" (James 2:17) Together we can vitalize our faith. We are here to shine Jesus Christ, the light of the world, better and wider.

A new beginning in this new season: "The Sanctuary Is Open for You!" Have you seen two street signs in front of the church and a banner on the fence facing the Fairfield Branch Library, both of which read, "Tired? Burned Out? Come and Rest. The Sanctuary Is Open for You!"? As you might know, our sanctuary has been open every Wednesday from 5 pm to 7:30 pm for anyone who wants and needs a time of rest and prayer. After Rally Day Sunday, our sanctuary will be open four days a week for rest in solitude with God. You come and go as you wish. Let your FRAN (Friends, Relatives, Associates and Neighbors) know our sanctuary is open for them, as well. It is a priceless gift we at FGUMC can offer to people in our community and also a welcoming way of reaching out and welcoming our neighbors to Fairfield Grace.

This Jewish parable got my attention the other day. "A man is lost in the forest. He has been wondering many days and nights and cannot find his way. Finally he meets another man and says to him: "My friend, I am lost. I have been trying to find the way for many days and nights, but I cannot. Can you show me the way?" The other man answers: "I too am lost. Yet I can tell you this: "Do not go the way I have gone. That way does not lead anywhere. Let us search for the way together". – Rabbi Hazyim of Zanz translated by Jack H Bloom

Side by side, hand in hand, heart to heart, let us search for the way together, trusting our precious Lord, Jesus Christ, will lead us and show us the way.

See you Sunday!

Kun Sam, your great small church pastor

P. NOBLE FLOWER MINISTRY AT FGUMC IS BLOOMING!

Trader Joe's in Fairfield on Black Rock Turnpike generously donates excess flowers to the church every week for Sunday services. The donation is picked up and arranged in vases by the efforts of John and Pat Bailey and Karen Benson. Our thanks to Trader Joe's and this new ministry (called P. Noble Flower Ministry) at Fairfield Grace. Special thanks to John and Pat Bailey for creating this new ministry here at our church.

We hope people continue to enjoy these flowers at Sunday services and share them by distributing to FRAN that cannot be here at church or are in need of a little cheer.

Consider a Bequest to Fairfield Grace in Your Will

Your gifts to Fairfield Grace ensure the means to continue the mission and ministry of the church into the future. Members and friends are encouraged to make a bequest in a Will to benefit the church or specific ministries of the church.

Ways to designate the amount of your bequest:

Specific Dollar Amount,

I give, devise and bequest to Fairfield Grace United Methodist Church located at 1089 Fairfield Woods Road Fairfield, CT the sum of _____ dollars ($ _____) {or specifically described personal or real property} for its general uses and purposes. [The bequest can also designate specific ministries or purposes for its use.]

Specific Percentage,

I give; devise and bequest to Fairfield Grace United Methodist Church located at 1089 Fairfield Woods Road Fairfield, CT an amount equal to ____ percent (___ %) of the value of my gross or net estate, both real and personal for its general uses and purposes. [The bequest can also designate specific ministries or purposes for its use.]

Residual Bequest,

I give; devise and bequest to Fairfield Grace United Methodist Church located at 1089 Fairfield Woods Road Fairfield, CT the entire residue of my estate, both real and personal for its general uses and purposes. [The bequest can also designate specific ministries or purposes for its use.]

The bequest can be added as a codicil/attachment to your current Will. If you don't have a Will the State of Connecticut will determine who receives your estate after your death. Anyone that owns a house should have a Will if they know who they want to receive their remaining estate. It will also keep the cost of settling the estate down.

(These are suggestions and should be approved by your attorney.)

LETTERS TO THE FAIRFIELD GRACE FAMILY

We are gradually settling into our new home. Paige and Connor started school on August 15th (so early!) and are starting to make friends and get the swing of things in their new school. Connor started his new hockey team affiliated with the Dallas Stars NHL team, so he's very excited about that, and Paige is going to try out their beginner hockey program to see how she likes it, along with a series of kids' cooking classes. Duncan is settling in at his new office and getting ready for the rest of his team to join him here in the next two months, and I'm completing all the necessary steps to become certified here, while taking some time off to spend with the kids and make our house feel more like home.

We hope all is well with you and the FGUMC community! Please pass along our well wishes to everyone!

Best,

Laura Rauscher Sherwood

I would like to confess and apologize to Pastor Cho, my family and friends, to you my brothers and sisters in the Lord, and to my Lord and Saviour Jesus.

I am deeply sorry that I did a wrong thing, I made a bad behavioral choice recently.

I am committed to repent from this matter. My desire is to use my focus and energy to be the strong Christian man God created me to be.

I ask for your prayers, your support as the Lord heals and restores me at this time. I have asked Him to strengthen me so I do those things which bring Him glory.

I now realize I need to stay very close and stand fast to the Lord every hour. I cannot do much alone or by myself. I need Him and you my church family to have a successful Christian walk.

Thank you for your mercy, forgiveness, prayers and support.

I repent of this and all of my sins and I pray for God's mercy and favor. Thank you, Jesus.

In Jesus' name I pray. Amen.

- Chuck Ardito

I believe there are some things that are meant to happen. While driving past Fairfield Grace United Methodist Church, I saw a sign inviting people to come and spend a quiet time in the church. I happened to be in need of such an invitation and while parking my car on Wed. July 3rd, I met Pastor Cho leaving the church. He took the time to speak with me which I greatly appreciated. It was what I needed at that particular point in time and for the opportunity to sit quietly in the church and just "be."

So I want to say, "Thank YOU, Fairfield Grace!" for opening the Sanctuary for me and people in need of rest and prayer in solitude.
